RAYMOND HITCHCOCK MUST SPEND SUNDAY LOCKED UP IN TOMBS

His Trial for Attempted Assault on Helen Von Hagen is Under Way and Justice Goff's Rule is "No Bail!"

The trial of Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, for an alleged attempt at assault upon Helen Von Hagen was begun at 2 o'clock this afternoon before Recorder Goff. John B. Ward, an expressman, of No. $47 West Forty-eighth street, the first talesman examined, was accepted by both sides and was sworn in as foreman of the jury. The Court then took an adjournment until Monday.

Justice Goff ordered that Hitchcock be locked up in the Tombs until third. Birmingham the trial is over. The pale, lanky defendant turned yellow and looked wildly at his counsel, but they made no move to take an appeal from the and scored when Chase singled order of the Court, and Hitchcock was hustled across the Bridge of Sighs Josh Clarke walked
